

Profile

I'm a 8-year experienced Frontend web developer with React.js, Angular, Vue, Next.js.

I'm always updates my knowledge about the latest changes and the latest technology.

I understands the concrete knowledge and the new advanced topics of React and other modern javascript frameworks. I will always make sure the project is caught up with the up-to-date technology

I'm strong with Styled-component or any CSS pre-processing such as SASS, or LESS, and will be able to build and style the React components from the design.

I have a good eye and care a lot about user experience, I can develop any nice looking animations or UI effect that will appeal to the user.

I understand all the concrete knowledge of SEO and I am able to develop an optimized web app or optimize existing web apps to make them search engine friendly.
